

Charitable IRA Rollover

A tax-wise gift from your individual retirement account (IRA)

A charitable IRA rollover is a gift option that enables donors age 70½ or older to transfer up to $100,000 directly from the donor's IRA (or IRAs) to a qualified charity each year. The donor does not recognize the transfer as taxable income on his or her tax return. By the same token, this transfer may not be claimed as a charitable income tax deduction.

BENEFITS

When you make a gift through a charitable IRA rollover, you can:

- Count the amount of your rollover toward your required minimum distribution (RMD) for the year
- Avoid additional taxable income, which may allow you to avoid taxation at a higher tax bracket.
- Satisfy multi-year pledges to Harvest Hope.
- Create or add to a permanent endowment in your name or in memory of a loved one.

FACTORS TO CONSIDER

- The charitable IRA rollover is available only for gifts from a traditional IRA and not from any other type of retirement plan (401(k), 403 (b), 457, Keogh, ESOP, etc.)
- The rollover is allowed only for outright gifts to a qualified public charity like Harvest Hope, for which the donor receives no benefits.
- The donor must be at least 70 ½ years of age on the date of the gift.
- The donor can give up to $100,000 each year from his or her IRA(s). A couple with separate IRAs can donate up to $100,000 each from their respective IRAs.
- There is no federal income realized and no income tax deduction for the donor (unless made from documented after-tax contributions to the IRA).
- The gift should be transferred from the IRA directly to the charity. The donor should not accept any distribution of funds intended for a charitable IRA rollover.
- Please check with your financial advisor to determine how a charitable IRA rollover gift will impact you.

Here is an example of how a charitable IRA rollover might be a tax-wise move: A donor who withdraws funds from her IRA directly would have to include the amount withdrawn in her adjusted gross income (AGI). If she then makes a charitable gift to Harvest Hope equal to the amount withdrawn, she may claim an income tax deduction but the increase in AGI may put her in a higher tax bracket. By contrast, a donor who makes a charitable IRA rollover gift does not make a taxable withdrawal, and therefore, does not have increased income and is not subjected to the higher tax bracket or released costs due to the IRA rollover.

Please note that an estate gift from an IRA to Harvest Hope (at the IRA account owner's death) may be more appropriate for those donors who do not have sufficient assets to comfortably consider a lifetime charitable IRA rollover. This can be done by naming Harvest Hope as a beneficiary of the IRA on the beneficiary designation form available from the IRA's custodian. No estate or income taxes will be due on the gift to Harvest Hope.
